WRH names new President and CEO

Brian Chillman, Chairman of the Board of Directors for Windsor Regional Hospital is pleased to announce that David Musyj has been appointed the new President and Chief Executive Officer for the organization.

David Musyj has taken the lead role in making many positive changes that include:

- Spearheading the creation of Consolidated Health Information Services ("CHIS") to lead the Information Services division at both Windsor Regional Hospital and Chatham Kent Health Alliance. CHIS is seen as a model for the Erie St. Clair LHIN and the Province of Ontario
- Introduced the At Your Request Patient Room Service, one of only three hospitals in Canada with the Sodexo system
- Lead the introduction of the Above and Beyond and expanded We Care campaign

"Having had the opportunity to work with David, we believe his leadership skills will be a valuable asset to Windsor Regional Hospital. David's appointment provides for the continuity in excellent leadership and focus on quality patient care," stated Gary Switzer, CEO of the Erie St. Clair Local Health Integration Network (LHIN). David is a life long resident of Essex County and a graduate of the University of Windsor, obtaining his Bachelor of Laws in 1992 and called to the Ontario Bar in 1994. He attended the University of Detroit obtaining his Juris Doctor and called to the State of Michigan Bar in 1992. He and his wife, Elizabeth are the proud parents of their son Max, 7. Parents Jerry and Sandra Musyj are life long residents of Amherstburg, Ontario, David's father is a retired Elementary School Principal.
