Knowing others is intelligence; knowing yourself is true wisdom. Mastering others is strength, mastering yourself is true power. ~ Lao-Tzu

Cancer Talk 2011—Trash the ASH!!!

Trash the ASH will be held on Wednesday, October 26 · 7-9pm at The Hangar, St. Clair College. This year's Cancer Talk is a Café style event for youth between 15-25 years old. Learn why smoking during puberty and early adulthood makes people more susceptible to all kinds of serious diseases, including cancer. Learn how the tobacco industry is manipulating young adults. Come out and chat with the experts, and our local medical school students. Free snacks and parking is available and a chance to win an iPad2! Tell your kids, your friends, your neighbours.

Nominations open for Daisy Awards

The Daisy Award is an International program that awards and celebrates clinical skill and compassionate care provided by nurses. WRH joins Hôtel-Dieu Grace Hospital and Leamington District Memorial Hospital to award Daisy awards semi-annually. Daisy is an acronym for 'Diseases Attacking the Immune System'. The awards were initiated by the family of J. Patrick Barnes who created a Foundation in his memory. Nominations will be accepted from staff as well as patients and families. Applications will be available online and throughout the Hospitals. For more information, contact Karen Riddell, Manager of Professional Practice at ext. 52341.
