

Essex Golf & Country Club

Course and Clubhouse Dress Code Policy:

A dress code is essential to preserve the tradition of attire relating to golf and social functions at Essex Golf & Country Club. Each member and his/her guests are obligated to conform to a dress code so all can be assured of a dignified atmosphere to entertain ourselves, our families and our guests. The Club staff has authority granted by the Board of Directors to refuse golfing or clubhouse privileges to those not properly attired.

CLUBHOUSE DRESS CODE

Appropriate attire is expected for all areas of the clubhouse, including the Ballroom, the Fairway Room, Great Hall, Grille Room, Oak Ridge Room, Canadian Open Room, Dale Sellers Patio and lounge areas. In general, the attire for golf is the minimum requirement to be worn. This is applicable to all members, children and guests. Members are responsible for communicating the dress code to their guests.

GENTLEMEN

- Proper golf attire
- Collared shirts, turtlenecks, mock necks, crew necks
- Shirts tucked in unless designed to be worn out
- Tailored trousers or Bermuda length (4 inches above knee) shorts

WOMEN

- Proper golf attire
- Dresses, suits, skirts
- Tailored slacks or capris

NO T-shirts, cargo shorts or pants, jeans, denim, sweat wear, cutoffs, sport team clothing or bare midriffs are allowed. Caps or visors are only allowed in men's and women's lounge and/or locker room.
