Discussion about the proposed Windsor-Essex Hospitals System coming to Devonshire Mall

Shoppers are invited to take some time this weekend to learn more about the proposed Windsor-Essex Hospitals System. Hospital staff and project supporters are setting up an interactive booth in the Devonshire Mall food court all day Saturday to engage with and educate shoppers about the bold new vision for healthcare in Windsor-Essex.

Stop by to learn more about the project and ask questions. Visitors are invited to take the Windsor-Essex Hospitals System quiz for a chance to win a "Building on our Strengths" prize package and show support by taking photos in front of the #WEareready selfie wall and sharing them online.
